Scheduling, Length, and Costs of Classes

Scheduling Your Classes

Please contact me to schedule classes, both video-conference-based and in person. Please keep in mind that video-conference classes cannot be scheduled on Shabbat or chaggim (East Coast time). Similarly, travel to or from your venue on Shabbat or chaggim is not possible; I'm happy to accept home hospitality for Shabbat programs.

Video-conference classes will be conducted via Zoom. Your institution does not need to subscribe to participate in Zoom video-conferences.

Length of Classes

Unless otherwise specified, both in-person or video-conference classes geared to adults and teens last for 45 minutes to an hour, allowing 30-35 minutes of presentation and 15-20 minutes of open discussion. Classes for pre-school and elementary-school students last around 30 minutes, with between 15-20 minutes of slide-discussion, and 10-15 minutes of open discussion. If your school periods require different timing, let's discuss this when you book.

Cost of Classes

The cost of classes is $750 apiece; in-person classes will also entail travel and in most cases, accommodations. I request payment of 50% of course costs upon confirming the dates and program, the remainder payable immediately prior to classes (for video-conference classes) or on-site if I travel to your institution. You may also reimburse me for travel-related expenses on-site. Please contact me if your institution needs special consideration.

*Your Spirit in Light*s also involves supplies. I will provide you with a list of materials and on-line sources; these run roughly $8 per participant. This workshop has the greatest impact—a really remarkable effect—on students when it includes teaching them to apply genuine gold leaf; I bring the leaf and adhesive with me, at an additional cost of roughly $1.50 per participant, depending upon the current price of gold leaf.
